

before training:
same width, unrelated coordinates

after paired training:
mates land together

